

For Part 3,

Serena completed the html files and python flask queries for the home page when logged out and customer use cases except the track spending use case.

Brandon completed the html files and python flask queries for the staff use cases and the customer track spending use case.